STATE HIGH SCHOOL INSPECTOR W. H. HAND'S ANNUAL REPORT

COLUMBIA, Jan. 9.—Good work is reported by W. H. Hand, State high has been decreased from 180 last year school inspector, in his annual re-port. In the following summary of his work Mr. Hand shows that there are 560 teachers in the 175 high retrogression. The Shandon and schools of the State and his observations and recommendations will be of interest. In the summary issued here this afternoon Mr. Hand says:

The work of the year has not been marked by any sudden leap or spasmodic effort, but it has made substantial progress in several directions. After careful consideration 1 have thought it best to continue this year the plan of giving by years the growth and development of the high schools since 1906, the beginning of the work of this office. Naturally the first items of iterest are the number of high schools and the teaching

The steady increase in the high school ciroliment suring the past eight years is greiffying to contemblate. It speaks well for the growing interest the people are taking in secondary education and the increasing efficiency of the schools. In that period the high school attendance has increased 161 per cent. Still, a study of the tables of this report ought to impress the thoughtful citizen with at the schools are not holding the communities these wide.

Within eight years the high school enrollment has been a little more than doubled. During the same period the number of full-time teachers has been considerably more than trobled, and the gusaher of part-time teachers has been increased nearly 30 per cent. The fact that the increase in the teaching force is more rapid than the increase in the attendance of pupils is a healthful sign.

We are all glad to have with a few new ones. There are only Arthur Brooks in the high a ten vacant places in barracks. Last year at this time there were 730 students attending classes; while this year there are 748. There are 62 more men in college clases now than were in the same classes last year. This in-crease in the college classes is due in part to the fact that the preparatory class has been abolished. The work of the new year has started well. President Riggs made an appropriate ad-dress at the respening on Tuesday

The room presented a beautiful appearance, being decorated in holly. The presents were simple, but pretty, and each child received some token of rememberance. But the wost caloyable part was the arrival of Santa Claus with a lag of fruits and candy. He piaced the bag under the tree and began to cut the presents from the Irre. After those were distributed he opened his hag of fruits and presents and presented each child with fruits and candy. I guess this was the first time that most of the children had ever seen Santa. Here was a nice crowd present and barybody seemed to enjoy themselves. Christman was very dull in these warts. The weather was so coal and the roods so muddy that the people could not travel.
